

The Five, Hallie Rubenhold

The untold lives of the women killed by Jack the Ripper – meticulously researched, angry and brilliant. £9.99

I Feel Bad About my Neck, Nora Ephron

Whipsmart writing on being a woman, by the late film director and novelist. £9.99

Heat of the Moment, Sabrina Cohen-Hatton

Life and death decision making from one of the UK's most senior female firefighters. £8.99

How to Fail, Elizabeth Day

Uplifting look at how failing can be made to work for us. £9.99

I Survived, Victoria Cilliers

True story about the attempted murder of the author. In 2015 her husband tampered with her parachute and she fell 4,000 feet on a skydive. £8.99.

Invisible Women, Caroline Criado-Perez

The data that shows the world is built for and by men. £9.99 (5/3)

Lost Dog, Kate Spicer

Kate's life is going off the rails until she adopts a shabby lurcher; when he goes missing, she must save him as he saved her. £9.99

MI5 and Me, Charlotte Bingham

Aged 18 in the 50s she discovers her boring father is a spy, then works at MI5 herself. 'Sparky and larky' – The Guardian. £8.99

The Secret Barrister

How the justice system is broken and who broke it – inside view from an anonymous barrister. £9.99

www.sevenoaksbookshop.co.uk

Sevenoaks Bookshop

Books for Book Groups 2020

Every year we compile a list of books that are not just great reads, but should also hopefully lead to meaty, lively, or even riotous discussions! Books worth talking about. All books listed are available in paperback – some already, some on the dates in brackets.

Book Groups Discount

If four or more copies of a book are ordered and collected by one person, we offer a 15% discount (cannot be used with our customer loyalty card scheme).

Author Events www.sevenoaksbookshop.co.uk/events

Our author talks make great outings for book groups. Our aim is always to provide the best opportunities for customers to meet authors locally and ask questions in a relaxed environment. Join our mailing list to find out more: www.sevenoaksbookshop.co.uk.

Bookshop Book Club Join us once a month in our café for a friendly discussion and a cup of tea or coffee from 12.30 – 1.30. More information: www.sevenoaksbookshop.co.uk/lunchtime-bookgroup

www.sevenoaksbookshop.co.uk

Fiction

Annelies*, David Gillham

Anne Frank survives the Holocaust – haunting what-if novel. £8.99

The Confessions of Frannie Langton*, Sara Collins

2019 Costa Prize first novel winner. Wide Sargasso Sea meets Beloved meets Alias Grace (Margaret Atwood). £8.99

Death is Hard Work*, Khaled Khalifa

Three estranged siblings take their father's body across war torn Syria to their ancestral village. £8.99

Girl, Woman, Other*, Bernardine Evaristo

Booker Prize winning connecting stories of twelve very different people – mostly women, mostly black. Brilliant book – lots of things to discuss. £8.99 (5/3)

Lanny*, Max Porter

A place where the living co-exist with the long dead. Strange and truly original – in content and presentation. £8.99 (31/3)

Late in the Day*, Tessa Hadley

Two couples have been inseparable for decades, one of the four dies love and sorrow give way to anger and resentment. £8.99

Machines Like Me*, Ian McEwan

An alternative 80s where Britain lost the Falklands War – the first synthetic humans, love triangles and moral dilemmas. £8.99 (3/3)

My Brilliant Friend*, Elena Ferrante

The acclaimed saga which opens in 1950s Naples is now in paperback. £8.99 (5/3)

The Narrow Land*, Christine Dwyer Hickey

Cape Cod in the summer of 1950 – an unlikely friendship is forged when a 10-year old orphan meets the ailing artist Edward Hopper and his jealous wife Jo. £8.99

Say Say Say*, Lila Savage

A young would-be artist cares for a disabled woman - compassion, gender roles and the strength of love. £8.99 (5/3)

The Secrets We Kept*, Lara Prescott

Historic fiction following the attempt to smuggle the banned Dr Zhivago back into Russia. £8.99 (17/3)

Slaughterhouse 5*, Kurt Vonnegut

The Dresden fire-bombing – an all-time great anti-war book. £8.99

The Street*, Ann Petry

1946 classic – first novel by a black woman to sell over a million copies. The American Dream and life in a Harlem tenement. £9.99

Supper Club*, Lara Williams

A secret society for hungry women – young womanhood, rage and joy. For lovers of Sally Rooney and Fleabag. £12.99 (£8.99 2/7)

Warlow Experiment*, Alix Nathan

1793 – an Enlightenment experiment in human isolation gone more than a little mad! Dark and brilliant. £8.99 (2/4)

Non-Fiction

Blood on the Page*, Thomas Harding

June 2006 – a Hampstead house with trees growing through the floor, a murder, a secret trial, a search for the truth. £8.99